Dedicated Diverse Dynamic

Accreditation Self-Study for the Higher Learning Commission 2008

Live, Learn and Thrive.™

On behalf of New Mexico State University, we extend a warm welcome to the Higher Learning Commission Site Team. Preparations for your visit involved collaborations across our campuses, colleges, departments and units. Virtually every facet of the NMSU System has been actively engaged in the self-study process that culminates with your visit.

The self-study process has given all of us the opportunity to carefully consider the progress we have made over the past ten years, to assess our achievements and challenges during this time, and to consider the ways we will leverage our strengths to meet the challenges of the future.

The theme that we have chosen for our self-study is NMSU in three dimensions. As you will see, we are “One University” unified in our dedication, diversity and dynamism. We look forward to meeting with you, to introducing you to our campuses and to your findings as you observe NMSU in 3D.
